First annual Story Crossroads festival in West Jordan

(KUTV) Today was part of the first annual Story Crossroads storytelling festival in West Jordan today.

For 12 hours, 50 different storytellers from across the state took the stage at Viridian Events Center telling many different stories.

Organizers say the festival was 15 years in the making.

The gathering will happen again next year. Organizers say the the goal is to promote the folk and fine art of storytelling.
