One thing we can always expect in life is the unexpected. How to best navigate it? With creativity, flexibility, some patience, and a lot of humor. Utah's official current Biggest Liar (and unofficial three-time biggest female liar), Lynn Wing will take you on an adventurous and often humorous ride through the unexpected as she shares personal stories that are true, some that are "mostly true", and others that are outright lies.

As a woman commented after one of Lynn's shows, "One minute we were laughing, the next crying, and the next laughing. How do you do that?" Come and find out!
