

+ summary

We share the beauty of community through interactive storytelling. Hands-On engages the audience with a variety of storytelling experiences. Come tell a story with us!

+ stories told and taught by hands-on folktales

2008 – Present

Detroit Public Library – Jefferson
Little John Lost and Found

Detroit, MI

Living Arts / Wolftrap

Storytelling residences throughout Metro Detroit – 3 years

Detroit, MI

Matrix

Story-teaching/Storytelling artist in residence – 13 years

Metro Detroit, MI

Oakland County Parks – Lead Touring Storyteller

Created storytelling program, toured throughout the state of Michigan – 2 years

State of Michigan

Unitarian Universalist Church of Ogden

Turtle and Lizard

Ogden, UT

Detroit Institute of Arts

Tawara Toda, Our Lord Bag of Rice

Detroit, MI

Charles H. Wright Museum of African American History

One Cowry Shell

Detroit, MI

Story Crossroads

Tawara Toda, Our Lord Bag of Rice

Murray, UT

University of Utah

Story teaching Masterclass

SLC, Utah

VSA Michigan/Kennedy Center

Master Storyteller/Story-teaching artist for State of Michigan.
State and National presenter on inclusive story telling/teaching.

Nationwide

+ awards

Black and Brown Theatre · The Bricolage Award

2017

Best Actor

+ education

Wayne State University

BFA Acting

Acting certificate from MXAT
(Moscow Art Theatre)

+ skills

CO-AUTHOR

Living Arts' Detroit Wolf Trap
Empowering early learners, their teachers, and families
through performing arts